“ Every time we saw Renita she had a smile that would warm your heart. We didn't see her often because we lived so far away. God graced her to be with us for a little time li seems. God called her and she answer the call. Rest well Renita ❤️❤️🌸🌸

“ Renita, a.k.a. "Baby Girl," worked with me in the medical record department of Sentara Virginia Beach General. She was an outstanding employee and made my job easy. Though Renita was the youngest on our team, our Baby Girl had the wisdom and ethics of a seasoned Christian. She was chaste. She was refreshing and clean. We all just loved her. Baby Girl was always happy, and her energy lifted the entire department . Her soul remained pure and uncorrupted by the grind of the world around us. I can't think back on those days without also thinking of Pam, her sidekick and mentor. The two were comrades in arms, always bolstering one another and bringing their best to the game. We had every expectation that Baby Girl would rise to the top of anywhere the Lord took her. And so she has.
