“ When I was a Sophomore in high school, I remember I was getting ready to play drums for Praising Up A Storm at Heritage High School in Newport News. It was the first time Grandma saw me play drums and she was excited. When we were about to get in the car, she said “Juju, God’s hands were all over you tonight. The anointing was around you and it never left you. This is your calling from God, don’t waste your gift for nothing.” It was the greatest day of my life.

“ Whenever I was going through problems growing up, grandma would sit with me face to face, and calmly talk to me. I truly believe the Holy Spirit gives her the right questions to ask me until I give up and tell her everything while crying. Once she discovers the root problem, or whenever I confess, she applies biblical principles on how to deal with the situation that I'm facing. And it works. For some reason, this method of discipline hits harder than punishment. I hope that one day I can pass this wisdom she gave me to my two sons. Enjoy eternal life in Heaven grandma. We'll see each other again one day.

“ One Day at a Time
You lived your life one day at a time.
The words you shared were always kind.
You loved us all with your whole heart.
It saddens us to be apart, and forever we hold you in our hearts
Today you stand in God's bright light.
Watching over us day and night.
In our hearts you will remain
Until the day we meet again...
Forever Your love will live on in our hearts
and the hearts of those you touched.
We are so grateful to God for blessing our lives with the beautiful gift of you.
We miss you sweet angel,
more than you can imagine.
