“ I was blessed to watch Rev. Dr. Doris D. Howard as she followed the call of Christ on her life to become a Minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ at Walker Memorial Baptist Church. I was privileged to "proof" her papers while she was in preparation all the way to her Doctorate. I served under her in the Christian Education Ministry while she was Director as just one of the many Sunday School teachers who worked with her. It was also my pleasure to serve with her as she served as the Minister of our Youth Evangelism Ministry. One of the best pieces of advice I have ever received came from Rev. Howard when I expressed my dissatisfaction about my marriage at that time. She said to me, "Sis. Sheila, remember, there is nothing wrong with any person that the Holy Spirit cannot fix." From that day until now I have kept that advice in my heart. I am still married - now 40 years. Rest in Peace Rev. Doris and may the Lord bless, keep and comfort all those who knew and love you. Sheila P. Williams, Walker Memorial Baptist Church.

“ Most of all I remember mom being here for me when my daddy died & officiating my dad's funeral.

Thank you for growing us up. I wouldn't be who I am today if you had not been my other mommy through adolescents. I love you I will hold you dear until my last breath.

“ So many to write but what I hold dear is: sitting at the dining room table playing spades. doing homework or eating. Me n our little crew while mom sat at the head of the table reading her paper & smoking.

“ I was so blessed to have served with Rev. Dr. Doris Howard during my formative years in ministry, way back in the 90's at the historic Walker Memorial Baptist Church, Bronx, NY under the leadership of the legendary Pastor Joe Albert Bush, Sr.

Rev. Howard was the only representative from American Baptist Churches of Metro New York to show up for my ordination at Walker Memorial in 2010, and the sole representative from Walker Memorial to attend my father's funeral in Jackson, North Carolina in 2013.
For these reasons she will always hold a special place in my heart.

My prayers are with Bro. Jerome and the family, as she rests in the peace of the Lord.
