“ To the Family of Reverend Dr. George E. Davis, Jr.

Back in the days Mr. Davis was a member at MGMBC. He left the church and went somewhere else. In 2006 I was working at Grassfield Walmart. I met Ms. Libby went to her home and saw this picture on the wall. She said that's my Pastor but at MGMBC I knew him as a member. I said wow God has changed. 2GBTGLORY. Then Ms. Libbie ask me to be on a program at her church that's when I saw Rev. Davis again in 2006. He said I looked familiar because he remembered the Young Voices.

Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning.

Psalm 30:5 RIH He is free.

“ Julia and family. I'm so sorry to hear of George's passing. We worked together at Life of Georgia. He was the sweetest man. When our son died, George was the first person I thought of to do his service. He would often call and check on us. Hugs to all. Bud and Angela Bell
