“ Farewell to cousin Richie, who was always a source of pride and inspiration. He was a guiding force when I experienced heart trouble. Richie worked tirelessly maintaining the Blackwell legacy. He is now in the arms of the angels watching over us with the ancestors.

“ Deacon James Earl Tabon

Condolences and prayers to the family. I've known cousin Richard since grade one and played football with him at Lunenburg High School. Recently we were in the midst of planning our 1965 high school class reunion. He will be greatly missed. May he rest in peace. To God be the Glory!

“ I have known Richard since I was 6 years old. Having been good friends with his sister, I got to experience his sense of humor and playfulness first hand. He was a great guy and great friend. May he rest in the arms of God eternally. Love you.
