“ You were a permanent fixture in my childhood. We would look forward to going to Daddy's friend Richard's house. We found much joy we moved to Churchland, leaving the lifelong pals only a few miles apart. The friendship spanned three decades, was the epitome of what it means to be a friend. Richard was a talented grill master and the early movie guru. While your body has left us your soul will leave an everlasting imprint on our family. You are home now, at peace.
