

Richard A. Rodgers, Sr.

February 8, 1955 - December 14, 2010

On early Tuesday morning, December 14, 2010, the Lord called home Richard “Noonie” Rodgers, Sr. Richard was an electrician by trade and was married to Barbara Richardson-Rodgers for 31 years. He had been employed with the City of Portsmouth for over 25 years. Richard was educated in the Portsmouth Public Schools, graduating from Woodrow Wilson High School. He also attended Norfolk State University. Noonie was a talented athlete playing football, basketball and track in high school and in the church league. He also coached recreational basketball in Chesapeake.

Noonie was a loving husband, father, brother and uncle. Noonie was the family comedian, but was also a fun, loving, warm-spirited person. He was the center of attention at family functions and always had a story to tell that either made some upset and others to laugh hysterically. Noonie made it a point to keep in contact with all his family and supported them good, bad or indifferent. He will be greatly missed and his memory will live through each of us.

Richard was blessed with surviving family members wife Barbara Rodgers and two sons Richard A. Rodgers, Jr. and Reginald Rodgers; father Freddie Lee Rodgers Sr.; four brothers Freddie Lee Rodgers Jr. (Evon), Horace Rodgers all of Portsmouth, Kenneth Rodgers (Ida) of Elizabeth City North Carolina, Darrell Rodgers of Portsmouth; two sisters, Faye Williams, Dana Jones (Wendall) of Portsmouth; mother in law Mary Randall and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. Richard was predeceased by mother Ella Reeves Rodgers and three sisters; Gloria Rodgers, Jacqueline Worrell, and Regina Blowe.

“ To the family:
My sincere sympathy. I did not know Noonie long enough, but the few years I knew him, he was funny, always willing to help me with anything. We had up in down but deep in his heart I knew he did not mean no harms. He was a good man. I wish i was able to make it to the funeral. Noonie will never be forgotten. May God bless you guys and stay strong. With love, Paulette###imported-begin##Paulette Lokonon###imported-end##

“ As you may have heard so many times before, word can not take the place of the pain you may be receiving now. But you also must remember that God is with you all. We may not understand way life situations take us certain ways, but God knows it all. Noonie was a good person in heart. I remember him giving me a ride to work and listening to Kurt Frankin "The Reason Why I Sing" every morning. Now I here the songs and understand the message. You and the boys hold on to the good memories, because he is in a better place now. Love you to life your sister-n-law and nieces.###imported-begin##Chvonne Richardson###imported-end##

“ There are no words that I could ever say to erase your pain, but know that God can fix all things. In due time he will give you understanding, peace, and strenght to get through your time of sorrow. Noonie will be missed dearly, but his spirit shall live on forever through you all. I speak these things into your life as if they were. Your neice and cousin, Tangela.##imported-begin##Tangela Randall##imported-end##
