“ I remember "Pimp" showing up on my front porch a many of times with his friend "Doug". They kept me company alot. He was a cool dude and he didn't back down from anyone. He had this pimp in his step when he walked. It was good seeing him a few months ago. Rest in peace.

“ Pimp I still can't believe you're gone. I will always remember the day we met when you moved in next door. I will miss seeing you sitting on the porch as we watch all the cars go by while talking. My grandson's took your passing pretty hard. They will miss talking to you and asking me if I've seen you because they have some sort of new trick to show you with their hoverboard or basketball dripper. Baby boy said to me," Grandma who's going to help pick the yellow flowers like I did for Mr. Pimp? I replied, Mr. Pimp would love for you to continue doing it in his honor. Rest easy Pimp until we meet again. 🥺🥺 Love your neighbors CeeCee , Kerry, and the triple A team ❤️

My condolences go to the family and friends of my beloved neighbor. I will truly miss seeing you walk with that pimp in your step by our house. We will definitely miss your laugh, jokes and since of humor. May you rest in Jesus arms and may God give your love ones strength and peace during this time of great loss. Lovingly your neighbors Crystal and Jeramie.
