

Robert Luther Holcombe, III

March 1, 1960 - September 2, 2025

Robert L. Holcombe III, 65, passed away peacefully on September 2, 2025, in Chesapeake, Virginia, surrounded by his family and loved ones.

Born on March 1, 1960, in Orlando, Florida, to the late Lois H. Boyer and Robert L. Holcombe Jr., Robert built a life marked by hard work, passion, and a deep love for the outdoors. He dedicated his career to concrete construction and, in 1988, founded his own company, Concrete Concepts, which he successfully ran until his retirement in 2024.

Outside of work, Robert lived life to the fullest. He enjoyed golfing, snowboarding, wakeboarding, camping, boating, and kayaking—always seeking adventure and time in nature.

Robert is survived by his beloved wife, Jill Morrisette; his daughter, Lauren Holcombe, and her fiancé Scott; his son, Robert J. Holcombe, and his wife Gabrielle; his stepdaughter Jordyn Morrisette; his cherished granddaughter, Florie Holcombe; his sister, Mary H. Burns; and his dear friends, Linda P. Hutson and her husband Gary.

He will be remembered for his dedication to his family, his entrepreneurial spirit, and his zest for life. His memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

Tribute Wall

JR

“ I remember Bobby and Mary Sue as they grew up as neighbors of my family in Conway area of Orlando, FL. When he moved into VA it was less than an hour from where I went every year to in Shiloh, NC. He was a great friend. He will be missed

John C Riggs - September 06, 2025 at 10:06 AM