

Romine Peterson Liggins

March 20, 1921 - September 20, 2014

Romine Liggins was born in Courtland, Virginia on March 23, 1921 to James & Rosa Peterson. She was educated in Sedley, Courtland, Norfolk, Virginia & New York. She was predeceased in death by her husband of 57 Years, Cessar H. Liggins.

Romine had a strong work ethic, and a love of learning new things and all things mechanical. She was a Welder, Electrician, and an Aircraft Mechanic in World War II. She retired from Norfolk Naval Shipyard as a Sheet Metal Mechanic. She honed her skills through continuing education, always striving to broaden her horizons. She spent her leisure time in her flower beds, and out in the yard. She loved watching the birds, and enjoyed nature. She also loved watching a good baseball game. She was an excellent cook & mother.

She supported her loving husband in his Christian responsibilities as Account Servant and Ministerial Servant in the Congregation. She was very zealous in preaching the Good News of the Kingdom. She opened her home as a Bible study location so others could learn about Jehovah and his marvelous promises. In turn, this helped to build her faith and that of her family. She dedicated her life to Jehovah on July 19, 1986, in Hampton, VA.

She is survived by her daughters, Marilyn Liggins Miles, Karen Cecelia Thompson (leonard), Joslyn Liggins Collins (Jimmy) and a son, Victor Liggins

(Yvette), a loving sister, Elizabeth Carter, 8 grand children, 20 Great Grand children and a host of nieces, nephews, extended family and friends.
