

Ronald Deatrck Jordan

January 11, 1963 - February 11, 2018

Our beloved brother, uncle, great-uncle, cousin and friend Ronald D. Jordan slipped away to be with the Lord.

Ronald Deatrck Jordan was born to the late Lonnie Jordan and Rosebud Copeland

Jordan in Portsmouth Virginia. He was the fourth child (the baby boy).

He grew up in Portsmouth, VA, he was educated in the Portsmouth Public School System graduating from Manor High School Class of 1981. Upon graduation after several career choices he finally found one he loved, Rigger at Newport News Shipyard. Loved so much he was due to retire on February 15, 2018 after 30 years of faithful services.

He was loved by one and all, for his smile, outgoing personality, and lengthy conversations.

He leaves to cherish his memories: two brothers Lonnie D. Jordan (Jeanette), Houston M. Jordan of Chesapeake, Virginia; one sister Evangeline Y. Jordan of Suffolk, Virginia; four nieces Kanika Carey (Clyde), Jaminah Jordan all Portsmouth,

Virginia, Jessica Jordan of Portsmouth, Virginia; Charisse Jordan- (Shawn) of Chesapeake, Virginia. Four nephews Aaron Jordan of Williamsburg, Virginia, Derrick Jordan (LaQuita), Tabari Jordan (Charlotte) all of Suffolk, Virginia and Vernon Brown (Daveeta) of Newport News, Virginia. Special Friend Ed Garbedian of Portsmouth, Virginia. Along with a host of great-nieces and great-nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I want to send my sincere condolences to Evangeline, Derrick and the rest of the Jordan Family. I only had the privilege of knowing him for a little over 7 yrs. To say this Man was good, kind, and loving doesn't do him justice; if you knew him , then you know. He was taken from us way too soon, as all the good ones are.I will and already do miss him greatly. The only peace I have now is knowing he is with God and his Mother,whom he loved very dearly .Ron, Godspeed and God Bless you.
Your Friend,
