

Ronald Steven Drew

June 9, 1964 - February 7, 2018

On Wednesday, February 7, 2018 God in His divine wisdom and eminent power called our loved one into His eternal resting place. Ronald Steven Drew was born in Norfolk County currently known as Portsmouth, Virginia to the late Hugh Edwards Drew Sr. and Carolyn Elise Drew on June 9, 1964. Steve is also known as “Ronnie-Boo to the adults and Mr. Noodle to the children. He was educated in the Portsmouth Public School System. He specialized in home improvements and detailing automobiles. He was definitely the “Jack of all Trades”. He attended Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend Freeman Rhodes. Along with his skills, he was also the comedian of laughter during family engagements. He was well-known in the “Old Churchland” community for his personality and his hobby which was always lending a helping hand. Mr. Noodle called all his nieces and nephews “Noodles” which mended an unforgettable bond. From jokes to laying floors, from laying floors to washing cars, from washing cars to cleaning homes, from cleaning homes to cooking, from cooking to painting, Steve did it all. Steve will truly be missed not just for all his skill sets but his warming heart.

Steve is preceded in death by his father, Hugh Edward Drew Sr. Steve is survived by his one daughter Breanna Schumpert, Norfolk. He also leaves to cherish his memories his mother, Carolyn Drew, one sister, Tammie (Alex) Hawkins, three brothers, Lambert Jones, Rudolph Drew, Hugh Drew Jr.; and a Very Dear Aunt, Julia Ellis; one half sister, Lisa Drew, special friend, Latressa

Scott, host of uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, family, and friends.
