My condolences for your loss, Curtis family and friends. I've been searching for brothers I served with in VietNam. The picture looks like the Ron Curtis I shared a tent with. Always fun, generous with packages he received from home. I've wondered about him because he transferred out of the 87th Engineer Batallion. Sincerely Phil Zalenski

“ I would like to give my condolence to the family. My fondest memories of Ronnie were as a child -- he would teased my mother, Tina Smith and I. He gave us a nickname, Looney & Tick, in which, I did not appreciate. He was known to be a fighter. He had an encountered with my grandfather (an altercation) -- Ronnie and some friends were drinking and playing cramp at 1489 Newton St, NW, WDC. My grandfather demanding that they stop and someone else -- in essence, Ronnie beat up my grandfather. After Sgt. Jeff Washington received a black eye, he encouraged Ronnie to joined the military. In which, Ronnie did so, he was dear friend of cousins, Doug & Ernest Smith and George Waller. May you RIP.
Sincerely,
Linda Pooh###imported-begin##Linda Washington Weaver (Linda Pooh)###imported-end##

“ Its difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, looking back on our memories that helps me to see the bigger picture and that is to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord and that is a good thing. Ronnie your loving spirit lives in each one of us. 2nd Corin 5:8
