

Roslyn Kaye Watts

March 28, 1972 - November 19, 2017

“The stars go down to rise upon some other shore,
And bright in heaven’s jeweled crown, they shine forever more.”

Anonymous

One of God’s shining stars ascended into the heavenly realm to be with our Lord and Savior on Sunday, November 19, 2017. Roslyn Kaye Watts entered eternal life surrounded by family and a multitude of friends. The daughter of Carolyn Blow Watts and the late Robert L. Watts, Sr. of Portsmouth, she is survived by her brother, Robert L. Watts, Jr. and wife Sharon.

Roslyn joined Third Baptist Church at an early age. She was an active and supportive member until her untimely death. A 1991 graduate of Churchland High School, she attended Norfolk State University before becoming a licensed Real Estate Agent, most recently employed with Century 21-Nachman Realty.

Roslyn, fondly known as Roz, was admired for her caring heart and lovely personality. She was an inspiration to everyone who was her friend and others who came in contact with her. Roz exemplified the meaning of selflessness in her daily life. She made everyone feel special as if they were her one and only best friend. She had a magical connection and an abounding love for her God, family and friends. Gifted with a creative spirit, she brought a unique approach to life and to the meaningful relationships formed.

Roz was also a “fashionista” and true “Diva” who loved to post her best pics on snapchat, Instagram or Facebook .

A phenomenal daughter to her mother, sister to her brother and diligent caregiver to her beloved Aunt Joyce; Roz will be deeply missed by family, friends and colleagues who loved her.

Roz is survived by her mother Carolyn Watts, brother Robert “Bobby” (Sharon), aunts: Joyce Earls Curtis, (James), Joyce Alice Pierce and Ora Lee Leach; uncles; Arthur Lee Ridley and Lawrence E. Blow, Jr. and a host of cousins.

With tenderness of heart, we will remember her smile and her lively spirit. May God’s love make the grief bearable.

“ There are so many great memories with you and of you. Your smile, would light the darkest of rooms and your laugh, would make a difficult situation easier to get through. You had a heart of gold, and so much compassion! You were more than a friend, you were my sister. Your life was cut way too short to everyone of us whose lives you touched, but God was ready for you. You will live on in our hearts and memories, never to be forgotten. I love you sis.

“ Sincerest condolences to Ms. Watts and Roz's family and friends. What a void she left here on earth ! Her loving personality and witty demeanor will be missed by many.

Roz, I will forever cherish our time together and our last conversation. You weren't just my agent, you became family! Thank you for showing me and my son so much love and being somebody I could depend on. You will forever be missed.

“ Roz Roz as I called you, I didnt know you but a short while. In that short while you made quite an impression on me. Such an upbeat, kind hearted person and always smiling no matter what. You were just trying to figure out a place to have the office Christmas party just a few days ago. Now you have been invited by God to his party of Angels. Your little song you would sing every time you passed by my office "kelly -belly" I will hear for a long time to come and never forget just like you will never be forgotten by your family, friends, colleagues, co-workers,etc. May you be at peace Roz Roz! Thanks for that lil' tune! My condolences to your Mom and family. You will be extremely missed. Thanks for the laughs and smiles!
