“ So sorry to hear of your loss Reverend Dr. Jones. I know how it must feel, especially around the holidays. We lost our mother on November 30th. She passed away at home after a long illness but we have such fond memories to keep us going. You all will find fond memories of Snookie to keep you.

Take Care. And Be Blessed!

“ We, the Officer, Members and friends of Lakeview are saddened to learn of this a moment of departure. We had the joy and privilege to meet our Pastor's Nephew when he was installed. He was a very bright and articulate young man. As time goes by it takes our loved ones but never our love. Be comforted by the fragrance of the flowers but also be encouraged by our empathy. We love you Pastor and we love all of your loved ones. God bless, comfort and keep you all in His Love and Light.

“ To the family, Roy was like a brother to me and Dennis.(Streater) Montique looked to him as his Uncle Roy. He is really going to be missed. He had a good heart and head. We know he is at peace now and in a better place. I have many fond memories of him. I am out of town now so i can't make the services but my prayers will be with the whole family.##imported-begin##Angela Smith##imported-end##
