

Ruby Staton Cannon

August 19, 1942 - August 14, 2016

Ruby Jean Staton Cannon was born on August 19, 1942, in Norfolk, Virginia and graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in 1960. She continued her education at Norfolk Vocational Technical Center where she obtained her LPN license. She was preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Hazel Baker Staton and her oldest brother James “Mookie” Staton.

Ruby worked for over 25 years as a LPN for the US Navy at the Portsmouth Naval Hospital, Naval Oceana Medical Clinic and finally Sewells Point Branch Medical Clinic Naval Station Norfolk, where she retired in 2003. Her love for nursing did not stop after retirement as she worked part-time for a number of years at Province Place at Maryview, where she was loved by the residents and highly respected by her co-workers.

Ruby leaves in God’s care one brother, Andrew Staton – Portsmouth; three children; Theresa A. Cannon – Easton, PA; Richard Cannon Jr. (Dorothy) – Norfolk and Joseph L. Cannon (Jessica) - Charlottesville; special cousin, Judy Thompkins (Jesse); special friends, Berline “Peggy” Brown; Marquita Hill; and, LaBarbara Richardson, who has been a neighbor and friend for 50 years. She also, leaves a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ Ms. Cannon was one of several mothers who kept watch over the Liston Lane children when I was growing up. She was kind, always supportive. I spent many an afternoon in that home, and she always made me feel welcomed. She was one of the great ladies of my youth. I am so honored she was part of my village.
