Ms (Momma) Ruby, you will truly be missed! Thanks for those special memories I shared with you and the family, you blessed the lives of my children when you kept them. Your love, humor and compassion will live on forever through the lives you have touched. Thank you Lord for allowing her to pass through my life and touch my heart.

My heart is saddened by the loss of such a wonderful lady. I met Ms Ruby in 1988 when I was in the service. We became very close friends and she treated me as if I was one of her very own. We use to spend a lot of time together doing so many things. We use to go out, shopping, hitting up all the flea markets, walking and occasionally riding bikes. She always made sure that I had a home cooked meal, she was famous for her black-eye peas, ham hock rice and cornbread. If I ever had a problem she was right there giving me advice and she didn't mind if you liked it or not she told you what she thought. I stayed in touch with Ms Ruby when I moved back to Ga and we always would talk on the phone and she was there for me during several difficult times in my life. The last conversation that we had which was not that long ago she told me that she has always thought of me as part of her family and she reminded me just how much I meant to her. I will truly miss her and our talks on the phone. I know it is us being selfish wanting her back with us but if we could talk to her she would let us know that she is in a better place than we are. She is happy and surrounded by love. She is in no more pain and she is celebrating with the angels. When we talked on the phone she never would end the call with Good Bye cause she said that means she will not see me again she would always say see ya later or talk to you later. Well now I am telling her that I will see her later on the streets of Gold. She may be with the angels now but she will forever live in my heart! Family stay strong and know this is our time to get our life in order so that we will see her again in Heaven. You all are in my thoughts and my prayers.

With deepest sympathy Patti

Remember that life will be better again. Jesus said, "I tell you, you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice; you will have pain, but your pain will turn into joy." ~John 16:20

Dear Friend, It has been four years since your passing in the flesh, and I still find myself missing you. I know we will meet again for the Bible tells me so: After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words. ~ 1 Thess 4:17-18
