My heart is heavy today. I was shocked when I found out my sweetheart had passed. I've been calling for months trying to reach Ms.Ruth. Ms.Ruth was a jewel! I'm truly going to miss my sweet friend who was like a grandmother to me from day one of meeting her. I'm going to miss our long talks...we'll her long talks because I didn't get the opportunity to say much but I enjoyed hearing her voice. Twenty Two years of excitement every time that i would call or see her.In other words...she was one spunky classy lady who didn't mind letting you know exactly how she felt about anything and anyone. I would often say,"Ms. Ruth...you're a little firecracker!" She would laugh at the top of her voice and start right back talking as if she never stopped. I could go on and on about Ms.Ruth. My one regret is that I didn't visit her during the Pandemic. She asked me to come to get something she had for me but, I was more concerned about Jeopardizing her health so I stayed away.I wish I hadn't. Rest well Ms.Ruth,a job well done. My heartfelt condolences and prayers to her family. ~Carla Marshall~

“ Auntie, I will really miss you so much. You always made your way to see everyone. The family gatherings will not be the same without you. Thanks for your caring & loving heart, and taking care of mom. You would always feed us, cloth us, visit us, and make us laugh. I will miss your soft greeting whenever I saw you or talked with you on the phone; "Hi Honey", in your soft warm Jersey voice. Thanks for sharing your style tips. I now have a thing for scarfs, jackets, and hats, and still have so many of the nice things you gave me. You were a classy woman that was no push over. Heaven will shine with your style now. Rest in Peace Aunt Ruth, I love you & will miss you. Pamela Ridley
