“ My heartfelt sympathy to the Norfleet family. As a young teen myself, I remember Ms. Sarah with having a quite gentle spirit. She was a Godly woman who loved and highly respected her Mom, Mrs. Gertrude and loved her children. May God continue to comfort Dena and her other siblings during this great loss. My most sincere condolences to Ms. Norfleet's family. She was my my kindergarten teacher at Camelot Elementary. She was always so sweet and soft spoken and kind to all of us! May her good works speak for her. RIP to a beautiful woman. God Bless you all. 🙏

“ *To Annette and Family,
I had the pleasure of getting to know your mother for a short time during our rides to Elizabeth City, Moyock and a few other places. I will never forget her infectious smile and warm sweet spirit. And of course, her laugh when we talked about something that was funny to her. My sincere condolences, thoughts and prayers go out to you. Continue to be strong and always carry the joy in your heart knowing that you were the very best caregivers your mother could ever have. With sincere love and sympathy,*
