

Sandra DuPont Stigers

August 28, 1939 - February 1, 2018

On Thursday, February 1 2018, our Sovereign God called our precious, mother grandmother, sister, auntie and friend, Sandra DuPont Stigers home to her eternal rest.

Sandra was born on August 8, 1939 to the late Albert DuPont and the late Jessie DuPont of New York City.

Sandra Stigers was a faithful and devout member of Emanuel AME Church for approximately thirty-five years, being active as well as involved in as many as five organizations in the church, she was a member of the Commission on Senior Citizens, Voice of Emanuel Choir, and many more. With every organization near and dear to her heart she loved being involved with feeding and helping the homeless, every Thursday faithfully. Being involved with the Emanuel Historical Society gave her the opportunity to expand minds and give tours of the historical church that was used during the times of slavery as part of the Underground Railroad. There was almost never a day that she didn't have something to do with or for the church that she loved so dearly. Working always with a joyful heart and a big ol' smile on her face. Emanuel A.M.E Church will miss her in so many ways.

Sandra was employed at Norfolk State University for 22 years in the print shop and ultimately began working for the Dean's Office at the University.

Norfolk State is where she went on to meet many close friends and associates who have been great friends even long after her retirement in 2007.

She leaves to cherish her memory her only sibling, Glendine DuPont aka Sheb Muhammad; her daughter, Sidnee Lamarr and son, Malik Williams, three grandchildren Elease Jones, Lenarrls Jones Preston Davis and loving wife; six great-grandchildren, Jaheem Marshall, Hope Davis, King Davis, Ava Davis, Le' Nasia Jones, and Meilani Davis ; two nieces, Carla Bradford and Sabah Muhammad: a great niece, Samirah Brooks; nephew Julian D. Vigay; great nephews, Albrahim and Ahmad Muhammad; a host of cousins, close family; friends and so many other loved ones.
