

Shanice Q. Colon

November 23, 1993 - April 20, 2010

Shanice Qwata Colon departed this life to be with the Lord on Tuesday, April 20, 2010 at Children's Hospital of The King's Daughters after complications with Diabetes. She was born in Norfolk, Virginia to Stephanie Colon and Tony Colon.

Shanice was a member of First Baptist Church Camelot where she was baptized. She faithfully served on the Youth Usher Board and loved to sing God's praises. One of her favorite songs was "I Want To Serve My Jesus From The Inside Out." She was also a devoted participant of the Youth Ministry.

She was a Sophomore at Deep Creek High School where she was a dedicated member of the Marching Band Color Guard. Shanice was a talented young lady who loved to sing and dance. Despite her illness, she was an outgoing and fun-loving young person.

“ I have read posts and do not know where to begin. Either way I did not know this young lady regardless of her life style she deserve what majority of us have and that is a chance. None of us know wht the good lord have in store for us or the next man or woman. He will handle the situation and I would likee to sned my deepest sympathy to her family. Liked or not liked she was a friend to someone, a duaghter, a niece, a grandchild a human who had a lot going on. Just stay open minded and prayerful for all of us our day is to come. Try to put together what others may say about you. God Bless this family in many ways than words can explain.##imported-begin##MARTINE##imported-end##

“ Well, should I start, ok yeah I remember the first time Shanice came up to me in the lunch line and asked did I have a cousin named Kyle. I told yeah and told her yeah. She had the biggest smile on her face. Ever since then she we would speak to each other. I honestly can't believe she's gone. She will truly be missed R.I.P Shanice gone and butnot forgotten ! People need to be more respectful about her no matter if you didnt like her or not think about it this could be you !

“ Shanice was a very outgoing and sweet person . Everytime I seen her in the hallway , she always had a smile on her face . Its a shame that there's negative & disrespectful people commenting on her guestbook saying such negatuve things . Shanice wasn't a mean person at all . She was the exact opposite . So R.I.P. Shanice , You will truly be missed .

& God , please bless these people with such cold hearts

“ Dear Shanice, it was delight knowing you from school. You were always pleasant and had a ready smile. You were always respectful towards me and always willing to laugh at my corny jokes. You were always that great dresser wearing the latest fashions. I noticed you always made an effort to complete your school work. You, your smile and your presence will be missed here at Deep Creek.
