“ My prayers and condolences are with the Wilson family during this time of sorrow. Sharon and Henry have been my next door neighbors for 37 years. I could not ask for any better neighbors. Sharon was a woman of prayer and strong faith in God. She always displayed genuine love and concern for others. Trusting God to continue to overshadow the family with comfort and strength.

“ Sharon was a sweet, kind, beautiful spirit. She was always pleasant and caring. I would call to check on her. She never complained, she was always giving praises to God for his goodness, looking on the bright side of everything. Her love for Henry was greater than the concern for herself. She was a wonderful person, she will surely be missed. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, honest, just, pure, lovely, whatsoever things are of a good report, if there be any virtue and any praise think on these things. Phil 4:8
