“ Hey dad. It's 5 am, 10 years later & all I can do is think about you. I know you, grandma, & granny are in heaven looking down on the family & at peace. I still miss & think about you everyday. As you know, I'm still struggling & have my moments thinking about you. I dream about you regularly so I take that as you visiting me. I'm praying that you are enjoying heaven & being at peace. As much as I wish you didn't leave so soon, but I can't question God & why he does what he does. I hope that you're resting peacefully, please keep watching over me & protecting me. I love you so much dad & I miss you more & more everyday..

“I won't ask God, why...but I will simply give him all the honor and praise because he thought enough of me to give me the pleasure of knowing you. We've had our ups and downs, our highs and lows, and I wouldn't trade any of the memories for anything. I thank you for our three beautiful children who loved you, cherished you and will forever have a piece of them missing because you're not physically here on earth. We serve a good God, who makes no mistakes, your memories will fill those voids and they will never forget your legacy...Tammy
