

Shelithia Delvonne Clark

April 26, 1979 - August 28, 2018

Shelithia Delvonne Clark was born on April 4th, 1979 in Portsmouth, Virginia to Sheila Clark-Lewis and Fred Ellis.

She was educated in Portsmouth and Chesapeake Public School Systems. Shelithia graduated from Western Branch High School. She received a National Apartment Leasing Professional license with The National Apartment Association Education Institute. Shelithia obtained an Associate of Applied Science with a major in Human Resources from Tidewater Community College. She also received her certificate from the Commonwealth of Virginia Board of Counseling, Department of Health Professions as a Certified Substance Abuse Counseling Assistant. Shortly after she formed Stepping Stone Homes, LLC. Shelithia wanted to be an advocate of helping people overcome drug use.

Shelithia was a member of Gethsemane Community Fellowship Baptist Church. She enjoyed doing hair and makeup. She loved fashion and sewing. Shelithia was a hard worker and enjoyed family gatherings; she had a nickname for everyone! She had such a bubbly personality that will never be forgotten. Her greatest accomplishment, pride and joy is her one-and-only daughter Kailan Wilson.

Shelithia leaves to cherish her loving memory: her mother Sheila Clark-Lewis (Derrick); her father Fred Ellis; her daughter Kailan Wilson; six siblings: two sisters. Tonya and Kisha Ellis both of Portsmouth, VA; four brothers: Fred Bellamy (Demetria), Anthony Ellis (Vickie), Victor Clark, DeAngelo Clark, Sr.

(Keisha) all of Portsmouth, VA; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

We thank God for her loving spirit. She will be truly missed but never forgotten.

“ To The Family, "Don't Cry For Me"

When I leave this old world - Please don't cry for me. For I'll be with my Heavenly Father, Where I Most want to be--I'll be up there thanking Him for all my friends on earth--I'll express my gratitude for saving me through Christ's birth-- I'll be praising

Him for the happiness and for the trials too--For the way He always was around to help me all life through-- I'll be talking to Jesus, seeing Him ace to face. And shedding tears for his grace--No, when I leave this world--please don't cry for me--For I'll be rejoicing in Heaven for all eternity!!!!
