“ It is with great sorry that I heard of the transition of Shirley. I have known Shirley for many years as a colleague in education. I have also known Shirley as to the wonderful plays that she wrote and directed. I am happy that I was able to participate as a singer in her plays. She leaves an extraordinary legacy and she will live forever through her creativity and through the lives she touched through drama.

“ My deepest sympathy is extended to the Brown family as a result of the death of Shirley. There will be a void in our Ebenezer a Baptist Church family now that Shirley is no longer with us. I will always has precious memories to recall having cruised along with a group to the Bahamas in 1989 and again in 1993. Shirley and Raymond were excellent coordinators for the cruise each time. Rest in Peace Shirley until we meet again.

“ Mrs. Brown will truly be missed. She loved her family especially her grandchildren. I was fortunate enough to have met her many years ago. Although we did not always agree on certain things, we agreed to disagree. Mr. Brown, you were her heart. She would smile, with those dimples, as she told me the story of how the two of you met. My heart goes out the family at this difficult time. May GOD give you the strength to make it through.

“ Condolences to Mrs. Browns family. She was a great asset to the Education of many children. Because of her teaching , my grandson Andrew Hawks is skipped from preschool to 1st grade at the age of 5 years old because he reads on 4th grade level. Thank you Mes. Brown. My prayers are with the family. Rest in peace Mrs. Brown.
