“ I remember Mrs Gibson from the Harper family. When my son Shaun graduated from high school she made sure to give a beautiful card and gift to him. She said he was smart and she knew how much Isadore loved him. She was a kind gentle woman. I know Mr Gibson is happy to have her back at his side. RIP

“ I called her Pretty Lady whenever I saw her at Grove Baptist Church. A pleasant spirit and beautiful smile. Could she dress, oh my, a sweetheart! I will miss her. My tears are joyous for she was a vibrant wonder. I know she was loved by her family. The love and joy in her life spread through her smile. God bless her family.

“ To the Gibson Family,
We will miss your dear sweet mother and grandmother, our neighbor and friend. Deaconess Gibson is a shining example of a Godly woman. She served God and her family with such love and dedication. She was always a lady, serious at times but she also knew how to have fun and make you laugh. Her beautiful memory and smile will live on forever. Take your rest Deaconess Gibson. Family you are in our thoughts and prayers. Hold to God's unchanging hands.
Love, Peace and Blessings!
