“ Shirley was more than my supervisor at The STOP Organization—she was a mentor and a true jewel in my life. She believed in me enough to hire me and poured into me with wisdom, grace, and kindness. Shirley was the epitome of class, and she had a beautiful way of reminding me that God loves me. The way she spoke about Him always made it feel like His presence was in the midst of our conversations. I will miss her dearly, and the impact she had on my life will forever remain with me. My deepest condolences to her sons and family. Her legacy lives on through the many lives she touched.
