“ I didn't know you had departed this life my dear co-worker. You were such a joy and a light to be around. We would have our little talks and we would just feel enlightening by one another. You were just a sanctuary by yourself. I'm gonna miss you, but I'm glad you're walking around Zion. I already know you heard "Well Done"

“ I had the opportunity to get to know So ya through her twin, Tonya. It was a pleasure to fellowship with Sonya. She was a Good fearing woman. Her spirit will continue to comfort those she loved. God makes no mistakes. She is resting with the Lord. She would not want you to be sad. Instead, celebrate her life by changing your life to get where she is. For she is in the presence of the Lord!

“ I am still in disbelief that I have lost my childhood friend/sidekick. I remember in elementary school when we found out we were no longer going to be in the same class. We cried and whined so much that Mrs. Butts spoke to someone (one of her connections) and to our surprise, we were put into the same classroom! 🤔 I guess it was a one time deal because after that we had to learn how deal with being separated 😭 Sonja, I am so happy we were able to reconnect and truly appreciate your friendship for over 40 years! You will be missed!!! 😭 I love you "Sis!" ❤️

Sending my sincere condolences to Lloyd, Tonja, Clifton, her neices and nephews, family and close friends. Many blessings to you during this difficult time.

“ In peace I will both lie down and sleep; for you alone, O Lord, make me dwell in safety.” “In his days may the righteous flourish, and peace abound, till the moon be no more!” “And he said, 'O man greatly loved, fear not, peace be with you; be strong and of good courage!'”

The last opportunity I had to speak with Sonja she was stating how much she missed her mother. She always has a sweet and spiritual spirit. Her presence was that which would brighten a dull room. Rest easy my friend without complaints for in Heaven the sun will shine again!!!!

“ Sonja was a proud women. She always had something to say. She loved her family very much. She was truly appreciative of everything you all did for her. She is no longer suffering and in pain. I can just imagine her singing, I'm free praise the Lord I'm free. No longer bound, no more chains holding me. My soul is resting and it's a blessing. Praise the Lord hallelujah I'm free. My sincere condolences to the Butts family.

“ I don't even know where to start Sonja you will truly be missed. It doesn't seem real. But i know Our God is to just to be unkind and He makes no mistakes. You was a dear friend and you referred in calling me Sissy and would say Sis, We are So Beautiful, We are divas, We are queens. Then you would just wave them hands with your tee hee hee laugh. You called my boys your nephews and my husband brother. You was an encourager a very direct person and would love to sing with the angelic voice that God gave you and a prayer warrior. My God i can just see that smile on your face with your unique laugh. It hurts in knowing you are no longer here, i know weeping endures for a night and joy comes in the morning. To the family my deepest heartfelt condolences and prayers are with you all. Sonja you will never be forgotten. I shall always remember you. Your Sissy Angel
