

Sonya A. Hill

January 12, 1967 - November 9, 2025

Sonya Hill, a true Bronx, NY native, affectionately known for her quick wit, humor, and big heart, was born as Twin B to loving parents Walter and Cora. She attended Stevenson High School, where she made lifelong friends and filled every hallway with laughter.

Sonya performed her greatest gift of free will by receiving Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior at the age of fourteen at Green Pastures Baptist Church.

Throughout her life, Sonya worked in positions that brought her great joy, especially those that allowed her to connect with people. She was known for her lively personality, her sense of humor that could brighten any room, and her no-nonsense way of keeping everyone honest.

Sonya loved spending time with her family, especially during card games and moments of reminiscing about old times. Her love for music was unmatched; she could dance anyone under the table and was always the life of the party.

Beyond her humor, Sonya had a deeply compassionate side. She worked hard to meet the needs of others and opened her heart and home with warmth and generosity. A talented cook, she was known for her hospitality and the comfort she brought to anyone who visited her.

In her later years, Sonya found pure joy in her grandchildren, who were truly her pride and joy. She also shared a special bond with her beloved companion Stylz, her dog, who reminded her that love knows no bounds.

Sonya leaves to cherish her memory her devoted parents, Cora and Walter; her beautiful daughters, Ashley Hill, Sabrinia Hall, and Stephanie Hall; her loyal companion, Stylz; and six precious grandchildren, Sinai, Journie, Saige, Sailor, Stormi, and Jade.

She is also survived by her sisters Rita, Sylvia, and Kimberly, and preceded in death by her sister Ramona and brother Danny. Her memory will also live on through her nephews, nieces, great-nieces and nephews, and a host of loving family and dear friends.

Sonya's presence will be deeply and wholeheartedly missed but never forgotten. Her laughter, love, and light will continue to shine through the lives of all who knew her.
