“ It's hard to say goodbye to someone that I haven't seen in almost 4 decade. We were fast friends back in 1981, meeting at the bus stop, on our way to school.. Our friendship grew into closeness that I didn't understand. I loved you more than any other friend I had and I thought about you all the time.. I still remember our last time together and how it hurt me so much to never see you again.. We became blood sisters that night at the Indian River Bowling Alley and said we would always love each other forever.. I missed so many wonderful things in your life, because I was young and naïve. I'm so happy that you had so much love and a loving partner in your life.. I'm so sorry that I couldn't find you after that night to say, I'm sorry for leaving our friendship the way I did. You deserved a better friend back then... I will always miss and love you, Stacey Tate Wise.♥♥ RIP

“ I still don't know why you had to leave us so soon but I'm sure there is a reason. I am at peace now knowing that you are not in pain anymore and with your loved one, Adrienne; and how happy you both must be now. We miss you both so much already. You will never truly know how much you were loved & how much you will be missed. My family came to visit last week and wanted to visit. We returned home to find out that you were in the hospital and I never had my chance to see you one last time. You are an angel now that has gone home to gain her wings. Please watch over all of us especially my Dad & your loving brother- for he is taking your passing very hard. Please check in on him from time to time to make sure he is behaving himself... I can hear you already saying "KIMBLE..." just as in the night he stayed with you in the hospital! Just know that you will be dearly missed and never truly know how much you were loved! We will mourn your loss but also celebrate your life!!! Love You XOXOXO##imported-begin##Kym Fabian##imported-end##

“ To my baby sister. I'm still hurting because you left at such a young age. You will be forever loved and missed in my heart. The only thing that keeps me going is the fact that you're on your way to Heaven because you have already been through Hell. Hugs and kisses, your loving Brother. See you soon but not too soon.##imported-begin##Kimble Tate##imported-end##
