“ Stacy was one of the first people I met when I moved to Portsmouth approximatly. Her personality sparkled like the midnight summer stars.

I met her mother about 3 years later, a team player. She was just happy to be happy).

One day on my day off Stacie, called and asked me to take her to an appointment. We had a big snow and the road we travelled was slippery and slick, when I made that right turn my car slid in the ditch. Stacy kept her composure, she didn't fitch, she didn't panic, she kept me together, she stayed with me until I contacted help and that they were on the way. She called her a ride and went to her appointment to make it on time.

Family bask in her happiness and peace.

Spread joy everywhere. Keep yall's hands in the master hands.
