“ Stan,

I am going to truly miss you in church! You always made sure to come trash talk me about The Patriots! I am going to miss our football talks! You reminded me of my father who is also in heaven! Now you both are rejoicing! Farewell my friend say Hello to my father, my grandma and cousin Charlie!

I miss you already my friend. In my short life my brothers have been men blessed with love like Jesus. You stood through the storms, and cross to the other side of Zion. Thank you for being a man of God, through him I pray to follow .

Stan you will be surely missed brother. I remember our days in Panama, playing little league baseball. You played for Mutual of Omaha and I played for Local 900. Competition was fearless in those days, but also a lot of fun. I will treasure those memories forever. You were a good friend and a great human being. RIP Bro! God Bless!

Stan, my friend, my brother. Your legacy of love - for family, friends... and of course, football - will be a perpetual memory and example for us to emulate. You epitomize the meaning of strength, tenacity and perseverance. And while I miss you much - I know you're in... not just 'a better place'... you are in the BEST place. With the King of kings, and Lord of Lords! I'm forever grateful for your friendship, encouragement and your testimony as a man of God.
