“ I'm so sorry for your family's loss. Stephan sold me my car in 2007 and I found out about his passing when I called to buy another new car from him. I would never have thought about going to anyone else! He was a very trusting salesman who had your best interest at heart. I was completely stunned as he was so young and such a genuine person.

“ We pray that the Lord give you all strength now and in the days, months, & years ahead as you live without your love one. Always know that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal. May the grace, love, and peace of God be with you. You are certainly in our prayers and hold fast to God's unchanging hands.

Sincerely,

Pastors James & Barbara Alexander
