“ Hi Family,
I just want you to know that me and my family hold very close to our hearts memories of our "Straty"...He was not only a dear friend but a son and brother to us. He would text me every other week to see if he could come cut my grass. Whenever I had to move(and I did several times), I would text him and say "Straty are you free to help me move by the end of the month? He would always say "YES, when and were....never did I have to text him two or three times. He would say I'll bring Reggie. " So it would go as planned. He always was there to assist with anything and to just say a kind word. He was so humble,for a such a young man. He will truly be missed. Please know that we are praying with you. " As Straty would always say "See You Later", never good bye. He would always kiss me on my cheek and off he went.

“ I knew Stratton through my daughters. He always was polite, always spoke. He was one of the few people that my daughters would sit outside with and talk with. My daughter shared a funny memory of him when we first moved to the neighborhood. She said he spoke to them then introduced himself as Stratton, "like Bryant Stratton College" :) little things like that or he would walk with them to the store sometimes during the summer. My heart hurt for his family and friends. Lord I pray that you provide justice, peace and comfort in such difficult times as these. Keep his memory alive, remember the good things, all the smiles he put on everyone face. Thank God that we all had a chance to encounter and spend time with a Angel.

“ I have to share one last memory of you. You always knew how to keep a smile on my face even when I was sad or mad. I remember coming into class late & you could see the hurt & anger on my face though I was still smiling. You just hugged me & told me I can talk to you. I'll never forget that! You knew how to comfort everyone & keep a smile on everyone's Face. I wish it wasn't you that had to go, I'd give anything to hug you one last time & hear you say " brook you are so gorgeous." “ Though the tears may fall
And the questions might fight us all
Knowing that your joy touched all I wish I could see your smile one more time and joke with you about what was yours and what was mine Seeing people show their friendship with you makes me lucky to have a chance to know u and call u a friend
I regret the argument we had it was petty and now I can't even

I remember him as a Freshman and Sophomore in the hallway and me telling him, go to class Stratton, and him replying I'm going Mrs. Stevenson! I was proud of the young man that he grew into his senior year, and I told him this before he graduated as well when I seen him in the mall recently. “ Stratton was one of the best people I had the pleasure of knowing. He was all around an amazing person. From the day I met him , he was just so happy and always smiling. From that point on I feel like he made it his responsibility to make sure I was okay in school as I was having a rough year. Anytime he saw me down or upset, he would hug me and squeeze me as tight as he could until I said I felt better . There's not many people in this world that I can say care about people the way Stratton did. My heart aches with pain from this news. But Stratton never liked to see me cry. So for him , I will try my hardest not to shed a tear . It was truly a blessing to know Stratton Mitchell. & I will cherish the memories I have with him forever. RestInParadise🙏??

“ . Stratton was always the person to put a smile on your face even if you weren't in the mood. We used to hang & he'd always have some funny joke out of no where to tell me. Always laughing , or making someone else laugh. If there was ever a problem, it wasn't anything out of the ordinary when it came to stratton cause it'd always be the same one , making someone laugh too hard. He had a heart of gold, always willing and very giving to others. He loved playing basketball and football too, my older brother used to always come in the house like " Man sis , Stratton was going crazy on the field / court " . He's touched so many hearts and he WILL live on through everyone he's encountered. I miss you and shall see you soon. #LongLiveStratton “ Man I can't even describe how hurt I am by this. Bro we have so many memories and I wouldn't trade them for the world. To always Chillen at your house waiting for your dad spaghetti smh I can't believe I have to say good bye to my bro/bestfriend you have been there for me since I met you and I love that about you. I love you Stratton 🤔🙏??
