“ Suzette, was my aunt but more than anything, she was my mother, and best friend. She always fussed at me about something and I could never get mad at her, because I knew she was right and always told her that she was. She loved her kids and nephews with all her heart. I have always called her momma and meant every word I told her. She was an awesome mom and I miss her so much. I love you momma and always will. Forever your Tip###imported-begin###Tiffannie Braxton###imported-end###

“ Aunt Tilvey, Tiny, Beeps, Alicia, Antoinette, Edward, Johnny Bot and all of the family.

I embrace you at this difficult time. As the days pass, let's celebrate Suzette's essence and rejoice in the uniqueness- that was Suzette. All of my memories of my cousin are positive. She never mumbled a harsh word about anyone. Sue never complained about her problems but would listen to yours.

During our childhood and summers in Chicago - Suzette had to watch us while Uncle Booker worked and Aunt Tilvey rested from her job as a nurse on the night shift.

We never heard Suzette coming but she always there looking over us, and did not let us get away with anything. She would say "you know what you have to do, better have the chores done before momma gets up. Or she would say." if you hurry up we can watch "Soul Train" together.

Her humor, dignity and grace are her legacy.

Family- we know what we have to do, so we all can join Suzette and (Shorty) on that "Soul Train"

LOVE YOU ALL!##imported-begin##Wanda Miller Sawyers##imported-end##

“ A dear woman who is "Gone Too Soon".

Lee, Toni, EJ, & Tiffany: Your mother lived her life for you, now it's your turn to live your lives for her. You have a whole family at VT Milcom there to support you.

Sue's Mom, Sister, and Family: Thank You for sharing your blessed Suzette with us, even if only for a moment, her.

Sue: You are with my son now, please take care of him for me until I get there. I miss you deeply. Thank You for touching my life and Soul. Now God is touching yours. Rest Peacefully. I Love You.##imported-begin##Kat##imported-end##

“ I have always said everything happens for a reason. I am trying very hard to understand the reason.

Sue had the patience that only special individuals have. She taught me a lot about getting it right! I will remember her for always, and miss her dearly. I have known her for Eight years and could not have asked for a better friend and co-worker.

She came to Jacksonville in June and we had a wonderful time together...I will never forget!

To her family I offer my deepest heart felt sympathy and want you to know that a lot of people love her just as you do. "I will never forget".##imported-begin##Darlene Groover##imported-end##
