

Tara Marie Vaughan-Williams

October 6, 1978 - April 21, 2015

Tara Marie has sifted through the sands of time and touched the Creator's Hand. Safe Passage, Beloved. Born to George H. Vaughan, Jr. and Marsha (Troutman) Vaughan, Tara spent her childhood in Ohio, Texas, Subic Bay, Philippines and California. She graduated from Dublin High School in 1996. Upon completion of graduation, Tara served in the United States Navy as a Fire Controlman. During this service, she formed a union with Sean LeNoble Williams. After settling in the Virginia area, Tara attended the Aviation Institute of Maintenance and was employed by Trans States Airlines in Richmond and Air Wisconsin Airlines in Norfolk as an Airframe and Powerplant Mechanic.

At the time of her death, Tara Marie was an Electronic Engineering student at Norfolk State University, a member of IEEE and a (T-Cup) Scholar.

She leaves to celebrate her life, a husband, Sean LeNoble Williams, sons; Ishmael Elijah Williams, Kai Joaquim Williams and daughter, Aja Monet Williams. Parents; George and Marsha Vaughan. Siblings; Ciceli Nicole Vaughan, Khalid El-Amin and Joel Aaron Vaughan. Grandmother; Erma Lassiter Freeman. Aunts; Marsheila Vaughan, Karen Elaine Vaughan Williams, Pamela Toran, Patricia Vaughan and Lucinda Vaughan. Uncles; Johnny Christopher Vaughan, Paul L. St. Thomas and Eric C. Toran.

A wealth of loving cousins and friends light a candle in her name. Tara was affectionately given the nickname, “Bunzie” by her late grandfather Bennie J. Freeman.

Tara Marie was an avid reader, photography and culture enthusiast, music and dance lover and artist. A banquet table with lamb vindaloo was a favorite. In possession of a passion for travel, Tara claimed San Francisco as the “home of her soul.”

“ Upon transferring from TCC to NSU in January, I was pleased to join the T-Cup community- within that community the person who stood out was Tara. Her very inner spirit and goodness emanated from her. We also shared a class and involvement in various volunteering opportunities. We laughed together and I felt comfortable enough to vent about certain frustrations. She let me do so and listened with concern- and often offered insight. As a very private person I understood that she also was a very private person but her soul was often revealed through her eyes- both the joy and the pain.

Her expressed joy was her children, her love of engineering, and as she put it, about NSU Engineering Dept., “I know that I am where I should be.” We shared delight in volunteering for FRC – for the love of robotics and, I know, because of the delight in watching kids being excited about engineering. At the FTC in January, I loved watching Tara interact with her young daughter – sharing a fun experience and setting the stage for her young girl to be excited about engineering. We talked about how to start a STEM program for girls in the area.

We even made it a fun undertaking to meet with Dr. Morsi – the three of us laughing about how to complete assignments. Tara planned to go to India next summer- as soon as she learned Urdu- because she heard it was beautiful. I was looking forward to sharing classes and more laughter next semester.

As you can see, much of our time was spent sharing laughter and knowledge. Tara was a very special woman. In the short time we were able to interact I knew her also a person who shared her essence. They say that “there are angels amongst us, to teach us how to give, to show us how to live, to guide us with the light of love”. This one left too soon

“ Tara, I was just looking for you in the computer lab last week. I always was able to sit and chat with you after class before going to work. I looked for you all last week. I am so grateful that i was able to get to know you and stress with you all the way from TCC to NSU. I remember that day we went to the outlet mall. You have on that beautiful blue top that is in some of your photos and we went to coach and you found a purse to match that shirt. My heart is aching. I will miss you. Mario Sanchez - April 29, 2015 at 05:34 PM

“ I remember the blessed day October 6,1978 when Tara was born in Morganfield,KY. What a beautiful baby girl (A Cherub) that bought joy to the 543 West Spaulding residence. Then in October 1984 when Evita, Crystal and I visited the Vaughan family in San Diego. Randy met us at the airport holding then little toddler. Ciceli and little infant Joel Aaron. Tara was 7 years old by then and was in school. I remember that we would walk to get Tara everyday after school at the bus stop. I remember that Tara was allergic to grapes. We would walk to the store several times, and Evita would lag behind and as Tara would say what Evita would say when she lagged behind. "I said WAIT!" The girls, Tara, Evita, Ciceli, and Crystal all slept in the same bed and had some fun cousin bonding time. I regret that through the years we didn't have a lot more, however I will always treasure those precious memories in1984. Marsha your cooking skills were exempliary and we shared some great meals at your table with the whole family around the table. It was some warm and blissful moments that I won't ever forget. They will remain in my heart forevermore. One more memory I would like to share from the 1984 trip. Tara was trying to figure out how we were all related, so she was asking a lot of questions. It was nighttime and Tara had school the next day, so Marsha said. "Go to bed Tara you're rambling. Tara has always been a smart, determined, and inquisitive young lady. I am thankful to have known and loved her from the start. The universe is a little more empty without her presence!!! May GOD COMFORT YOU ALL. TO Tara's husband and children whom I have never met but have seen pictures of and have heard about from Randy and Marsha, my LOVE and Care go out to you all. To Grandma Erma whom I have never met either but have heard about you from your son Randy and Marsha. My condolences and prayers for strength through this sad, trying time. I highly regret that I can't be there to hug you all, due to the fact I haven't been to work since January 29th because of Evita's illness. I just went back to work last week. Our Love for you all is continuous, From Bernadette, Joshua Sr., Evita, Crystal, Clarissa/Matthew Blackburn, Melissa, Joshua Jr., and Adrienne

She once asked me why we spent so much time on our African/African American roots but not as much time spent on our Native American roots. My response was: "I am having problems enough with the African component. I challenge you to seek out the Native American pieces."*

“ Tara - Rest in Peace

*"I have passed a mountain peak and my soul is soaring in the Firmament of complete and unbound freedom;
I am far, far away, my companions, and the clouds are Hiding the hills from my eyes.*

*The valleys are becoming flooded with an ocean of silence, and the Hands of oblivion are engulfing the roads and the houses;
The prairies and fields are disappearing behind a white specter
That looks like the spring cloud, yellow as the candlelight
And red as the twilight.*

*The songs of the waves and the hymns of the streams
Are scattered, and the voices of the throngs reduced to silence;
And I can hear naught but the music of Eternity
In exact harmony with the spirit's desires.
I am cloaked in full whiteness;
I am in comfort; I am in peace"*

*George and Marsha,
Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.*

God's Word is always a comfort and the Voice of His Spirit is always an encouragement in the hour of greatest trial. The Bible says, "The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us." (Rom.8:18) When you think about that, it helps you bear some of the things you have to go through now.

*"Sorrow may endure for a season, but joy cometh in the morning."
(Psa.30:5) Keep your eyes on the Lord! Look forward to Heaven, and it will help you bear some of these burdens and trials that you're going through now when you realize these are only just for a moment! Now you see through a glass darkly, but soon it will all be clear and you'll understand. (1Cor.13:12) God's tomorrow is a beautiful place! You'll be with Jesus and all your loved ones, and no sorrow will be there, praise God! (Rev.21:4)*

The tears shall be wiped away and the former things shall be no more in the glories of the ecstasies of the Kingdom to come!

*"It will be worth it all
When we see Jesus!
Life's trials will seem so small,
When we see Christ!
One glimpse of His dear face,
All sorrow will erase!
So bravely run the race,
'Til we see Christ!"*

*You all will always be in my prayers.

I worked with Tara at EVMS, and she was the best person I ever worked with, always with a smile and a joke. Thank you for the laughs we had. I will miss you even tho I can't wrap my head around the fact that you are gone. Fly with the angels!

“ George and Marsha,

May memories of Tara and the love of family and friends surround you and give you strength in the days ahead. She will always be within our hearts and the hearts of many others that knew and loved her. Know that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time.

“What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you LIVED!
And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget...”
