“ To the Bright Family, Terry was family, he called me Momma “D”. My heart is so full right now because I’m missing my Angel cause he’s on his throne in Heaven. He was in my family’s household at a very young age and he always brought joy & laughter. He made me so proud of the man he was (husband, father, grandfather, friend and mentor). Rest well my son and know that you are in my heart ALWAYS.

“ I met Man through my oldest friend, Dave. I remember Terry as this little dude, with alot of mouth and heart lol. We would kick it on Duke street being kids, and watch nwa wrestling. From making our own belts, to wrestling inside and outside of various places, or just doing whatever to past the time. Im gonna miss you bro. I pray that your family will gain peace and healing.

“ My deepest condolences goes out to his family. I've known Terry since he was a teenager. We used to fuss all the time but he grew up to be a great man, husband, and father. From one vet to another you and your service will not be forgotten.
