“ To the family,

My name is Vernice Davis, for as long as I can remember, Terry has worked with my father Alfred Davis in the lawn care business.

He was a son to my dad. Terry was never a stranger to our family. My dad entrusted him that way. I can remember lots of jokes, loud laughter and it was never a dull moment when the Terry, Toni and the rest of the team got together.

He will be missed.

The Davis Family.

I knew Terry since we were kids. We used to ride bikes and play sandlot football and just had the greatest times. He was a great friend and those memories of those times will stay with me forever. Rest in Peace my good friend!
