“ Thank you to all our family and friends.

The death and burial of my brother Terry Darnell Hardy has been the most difficult task I have had to endure. Virginia, Michael, and I could not have possibly made it without all of your thoughts and prayers.

Thank you to Rev Waller and the extended Christian Home Baptist Church family, you took care of your own, you will not be forgotten. Please keep us in your prayers.

To J. T. Fisher Funeral Services, Jeff and Nicole Fisher, and the dedicated staff, you got us through the most difficult days. They were really there for us. Thank you.

To Gail and Dee, you two are truly earthly Angels, Thank you so much.

Terry has gone home to his heavenly father and his pain is no more. Thank you to my wife Janet for giving me room to cry and a dry napkin when I need one. Your strength was my rock.

Bro, your Marines brothers done you proud. Your baby has your flag and we will all join together to finish the job of raising her.

Please folks, don't take your loved ones for granted. I was going to see my brother on Christmas Day but the Lord had a better plan. Get your houses in order for we know not the day or the time of our own calling.

Darnell, I love you and I miss you. We handled things for you.

“ To my family,
Although most of you may not remember me, I still have very fond memories of Terry. We had lots of laughs at mom's (Mary Ann). Terry is at peace and is waiting for the rest of his family to join when God calls. My prayers are with you all.

“ My Uncle Darnell,

You know we were very close to one another since my sister and I were little girls. There are so many memorable moments that we had spent together with the family. From pictures we have taken to us spending many nights over, from holidays to just coming over for conversations it wont be the same having you here in person but we all know you will be here in spirit. Now, you in such a better place that you no longer have to suffer, just by you watching from up above with the Lord and the angels dancing gracefully and have your angel protection around us day after day theres no need to worry. LaTisha will become the black powerful young lady that you wanted her to be and I will make sure she wont let you down. You will be missed but never forgotten. Rest In Peace Uncle Darnell. Love you.##imported-begin##Lenita Cooper##imported-end##
