“ When our 1st Pastor Donald McCoy Jr. Tried to start a Sabbath Service for Portsmouth Thomas wasn't there. He began traveling to Richmond until he became ill. Thomas was placed on our Feast of Tabernacles list of stay at home brethren. That year my husband and I went to Hawaii. There were so many post cards to choose from. I enjoyed sending a photo post card of the whales that pass the Hawaiian islands on their way north to the Bering Strait for Spring. He let us know that he enjoyed his card. 😊

“ Tommy was one of my favorite cousins. Always had a big laugh and a smile. He was a very humble and dedicated person and loved studying the bible. He was really into his religious beliefs. You will be truly missed.

“ The best part about being Thomas niece was during the holidays when I'd cook and deliver food to him and Aunt Bunny, and he'd tell me how good everything was. Rashad will always have those memories of hearing Thomas coming fast out of his room to greet us, then rumbling through the bags to see all of the food. And we all will forever remember the most intense game of balloon volleyball ever played where Thomas showed no mercy on Rashad. Rest well Thomas, you will never be forgotten.

“ From the day we moved in 5 years ago. We knew we had a good neighbor and neighborhood watchman! You didn't play about the culdesac and you made sure that everyone stayed safe and didn't park in front of the mailbox. We are gonna miss seeing you in the yard working and always with that big smile saying hello. Rest on neighbor until we meet again! Love Chante & George

“ Thomas, I still can't believe you are gone! You would come to visit me wherever I moved too. We enjoyed you visiting us last year in Dallas and going to eat Ramen. You would travel wherever with my Mom to see us. The conversations you would have with me if I would call home and mom was not there lol were priceless. You never treated us as if we were not your biological kids! We are glad that you are no longer in pain. May you rest in peace. Love Bump and Ced

“ Thomas, I can't forget the $3.00 in change you were expecting from something you bought from me. You were so serious about that $3.00 and yes, I thought it was hilarious. You were special, you got your wings, and now may you enjoy heavenly peace that surpasses all understanding. Your sister-in-law Tina
