“ Tijuana, Uncle Robert and Aunt Pam will miss you dearly, you were such a joy and delight every time you stopped by and had talks about your love for life and others. We will miss you and remember you in our daily walk with the Lord as we continue to journey on this planet called earth. We say to the rest of the famiyl that God shall continue to wipe all the tears from your eyes because God says "weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning". A family that prays together stays together.

Muggy Bear, I loved you and your siblings as if you guys were my own. I still do. My only comfort is that you are resting in the arms of Jesus. My tears, my prayers are for your mother, Marissa and Damien. Tell your dad I missed him calling me on my birthday. Miss Debbie
