

Tiki M. Jackson

January 6, 1980 - February 5, 2017

"And GOD shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain:for the former things are passed away. "

- REVELATION 21:4

On Sunday, February 5, 2017, TIKI MOEATTE JACKSON was called to rest by our loving and all-wise God. She was born, January 6, 1980 in Columbia, South Carolina.

She was a graduate of Deep Creek High School, the Wards Corner School of Cosmetology and currently enrolled in the Culinary Arts program at E.C.P.I. As a cook for the Soup Plus restaurant, she was often commended for her specialty - cornbread. She hoped to own her own food truck one day.

Tiki had an outgoing spirit where she greeted you with a big broad smile and would help anyone she could. Her son, Deja Malik, was the bright sunshine in her life. As she encouraged him in his pursuit of sports, especially basketball, she was often heard shouting her own 'coaching' directions to him from the stands.

In addition to her son, she leaves to cherish her memory, parents, Larry and Juliette Dowling; brothers, Omar (Ingrid) Jackson, Sr., Larry (fiancee, Keia) Dowling, Jr. and Ras-I (Leah) Dowling, Sr. and nephews and niece, Omar, Jr, Hassein, Ras-I Jr. and Amaria.; Godmother, Ms. Betty Boone; maternal aunt, Margaret Gillard; and many, many other loving relatives and life-long friends.

“ The management and staff of Soups Plus Restaurant offer our most heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Tiki Jackson. We miss her as our hearts are heavy. The restaurant is not the same and many customers want us to let you know that you are in their thoughts and prayers. We have forever re-named our cornbread "Tiki's Cornbread" and that will be listed on the menu forever. Her "special" cornbread is but one of the many ways she enhanced what we do.

May GOD, our Comforter, be with you and yours especially during this very difficult time. Please know that we are here for you and will always be available to you.

Most sincerely,

Dr.'s Barry and Eleanor Hoy, owners

Carolyn, Connie, Tracey, Janelle, Destiny, saddened team members
