This is so heart breaking. God laid it on my heart to type her name into Google and when this appeared—I started to cry. I really don't do social media. Treymane and I go back to 1990 at Ft Lewis Washington. She was such a dear friend and I have so many stories and pictures. I was stationed with her and deployed a couple times with her. I also remained in contact with her when she transitioned out of the Army. She was also good friends with my mother. My heart is heavy is real heavy right now. She will definitely be missed.

I am just now hearing that she passed away. I last heard from her in March 2020. She was such a GREAT FRIEND! She was gonna meet me in Spain this year. She wanted to come visit me in WA and I told her it was not a good time and now I regret telling her that. 🥹 My heart hurts. You will be missed so much!!!

never gonna be the same, when you're gone never left my mind or my heart and I will be forever impacted by your absence. My 2nd Mom ❤️ I'm going to miss you dearly Tremayne. My Heart is Heavy and feels broken right now and although I'm not understanding why you had to go I'm sure god had other plans for you. We didn't get that chance for you to make that move here with me. So many plans are now missed out on. I'm usually strong, but this hurts so much 🥹 I promise to never forget you & I too will Love you Forever Auntie. Rest with the Angels and I'll see you one day. R.I.P

“ I met you in my early 20s. You watch me grow into the man that I am now. Through sleepless nights, countless arguments, trips around the world, You were one of the ones that kept the pressure on for me to keep doing the right thing. I'll always remember our conversations laughs and our tears

“ I worked with Tremayne in Atlanta. Her office sat next to mine. She was always funny yet professional. We had so many conversations about our work and life. Tremayne left a great impression on my heart and many fond memories. I am deeply saddened for her family. I am still a little shocked at the news.

“ I can admit it's has taken me a few days to get the strength to write this post. You were my best childhood friend; one of my very first friends I ever made in this lifetime. We were 8 years old when we met and our friendship remained over the years and through the distance. I can't imagine life without you. You were an aunt to my girls DeShanna & Danyelle. I'll miss your beautiful smile and your ability to make me laugh like no other. You lived life to the fullest and I'll miss hearing about all of your adventures. Today, I went to view your body and the only thing that kept me at peace was how beautiful and peaceful you looked. It's safe to say I miss you my friend and I can't wait to see you again. In our very last conversation 3 days before you went in the hospital, you made a request of me. I promised you that I would honor you request and I will!! Tomorrow is going to be rough for me but I will get through it with God's grace. RIP sis until we meet again!!!

Love you always ❤️

“ My deepest condolences to the family and friends. Praying for everyones' comfort during this difficult time of loss. I am truly at a loss for words, probably because I am still in disbelief that my dear sister friend has gained her wings. You always inspired near or afar, I always looked to your daily FB post, whether it was a pic, a video, a saying, a happy birthday etc. or even from time to time a private message. You were definitely a beautiful person that had a heart of gold, loved life to the fullest and was always your true authentic self and I admire you for all. I still can't believe I will have to explore DE without you around when I relocate. You will be dearly missed my beautiful sister friend Tremayne, but you will not be forgotten. I love you my sister friend Tremayne.

“ Tremayne was such a giving and loving friend, I will miss her dearly. I'm so thankful to have known her and share great memories with her. The advice she gave me I will treasure for a lifetime. She was always full of positive energy, and always made time to just talk to you and make you feel seen and heard. She was funny as ever too, and quick witted! We will truly miss her presence. May you rest in eternal peace my dear friend. With love, Jessica
