

Treyquel Jamison

July 27, 1993 - February 8, 2015

On Sunday, February 8, 2015 at 2:40am; in all his sovereignty, God decided that he needed a new musician for heaven's Sunday morning worship service and that our humble son, brother, and friend, Treyquel LaMar Jamison was the perfect fit. Treyquel was born on July 27, 1993 to Annie Mae Randall and Bruce Douglas Jamison in Portsmouth, VA. 'Trey grew up with two maternal sisters; Dylesia Hampton (24) and Tiara.lamison (20). He also has two paternal sisters; Sharlena Johnson and Joi1amison who mourn his loss. Treyquel attended Portsmouth Public Schools and graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in 2011. He was a source of laughter and lightheartedness to his co-workers at Walmart Supercenter in Chesapeake, VA where he worked as an auto technician. Treyquel began his relationship with Christ at an early age at New Mount Olivet Baptist Church. As he grew older his Jove for Christ also grew and he developed a passion for the art of music, teaching himself to play the piano, and subsequently using his gift to minister musically at several local churches, most recently New Bethlehem Church of Christ Disciples of Christ. Treyquel made his own music and collaborated with several local artists to produce a mix tape and video projects under the alias "Trigga Treyquel leaves to cherish his memory his immediate and extended family, a host of friends and co-workers, and a loving girlfriend Jasmine to celebrate his life.
