There will be no viewing. *****

On February 7, 2023, our beloved daughter, sister, and niece entered into eternal life.

Tyana, who was affectionately known as TT, was born to Stanley and Tonette Johnson on May 1, 2003. She attended Portsmouth Public Schools where she graduated from Wilson High School with honors in 2021.

Tyana started modeling at the early age of 6. Tyana also participated in many pageants. She won the National American Miss Preteen in 2012. Tyana danced with Maureen's Dance Company, which led her to serve as both a praise dancer and hip-hop dancer within the youth ministry of New Light Church. Tyana was currently employed by Food Lion, Amazon, & Door Dash. Her hobbies were cooking, tik-toking, and taking adventurous trips with her best friend Keyana.

Tyana was predeceased by her mother Tonette Charine Perry. She leaves to cherish her memory; her loving father Stanley Johnson, nurturing brothers Brion & Brishawn Perry, a niece Malayah Perry, nephews Makai & Massiah Perry, devoted aunt and uncle Yvette and Melvin Chalmers, uncle Lonzell Pollard, a grandmother, Cynthia Perry, "sister-cousins" Jasmine, Jamia, &

Jamaica Perry along with a host of aunts, uncles, & cousins.

“ Oh Tyana,

I'm so sorry and sad to hear of your passing. You beautiful, bright, shining star of a woman. I'm so fortunate that I got to know you in 2017, through the Horizons program, as you moved from middle school to high school. Your passing breaks my heart. I send love and light to your family and friends who grieve your loss.

All my love now and forever - Ms. Shae
