

Tyrone Tremel Brown

March 14, 1966 - November 25, 2017

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

On Saturday, November 25, 2017 our precious son, father, brother, grandfather and friend, Mr. Tyrone Tremel Brown. Tyrone was born on March 14, 1966 to the late Hubert L. Brown and Eleanor Brown in Brooklyn, New York at Kings County Hospital. He was the third of four children.

Tyrone was educated in the New York City School System. Upon finishing school, he was worked various jobs which included: The Evelyn Douglin Center and the Gem Pawnbrokers. Tyrone also was an entrepreneur.

Tyrone was the life of every party, he was a jokester who loved making people laugh. He had an enormous heart for those he loved and was willing to go above and beyond for them. Tyrone will be remembered for being a laid back type of guy.

Tyrone was preceded in death by his grandmother, Maggie Bowe; nephew, Jamel Brown, and his son, Tremel L. Brown.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories, his two sons, Terrell M. Brown and Tyrell D. Brown; domestic partner, Lisa Crowder; his mother, Eleanor Brown; two sisters, Alicia Brown and Taunya Brown; three nieces, Shovecka M. Smith, Kimalee Perry, and Joi Brown; three grandchildren, Leorah Brown, Tyrell Brown, Omare C. Brown, a great-nephew, Karmello Smith and a host of extended family and friends.

“ Ty, it feel unreal that you gone, so sad that I'm not going to hear your voice and see you anymore. I know you didn't wanted to go but God needs you on his side. Thank you for coming to me on my dreams and make one of yours complete. Thank you for teaching me to love freely. Thank you for being the one who show me the way to manage things.

Tell me, tell me that your sweet love hasn't died
Give me, give me one more chance
To keep you satisfied
I'll keep you satisfied

Little things I should have said and done
I just never took the time
But you were always on my mind
You were always on my mind and my heart.
Sorry I wasn't able to give you the baby girl you wanted from me.
Pido a Dios que brille para ti la luz perpetua. Siempre vivirás en mi mente y corazón.
Rest in peace my dear Tyrone, my Ty. I know for sure God give you a new and healthy body. Every time I see and feel the sun in my skin I'll know you hugging me.

Forever yours,
Laisa
