

Vansola Vaughan

April 8, 1956 - September 29, 2016

Vansola B. "Van" Vaughan was born on April 8, 1956 to Blanche Morgan (Vaughan) in Portsmouth, Virginia. She was called home to be with the Lord on the early morning of September 29, 2016 in her home. Vansola was a loving mother, grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. She was the eldest of six children and always had a way of making people smile. Her strength and ability to overcome every obstacle separated her from many. She was a fighter and will always be remembered as such. Vansola is more than just a loved one, she's a piece of the family puzzle that will never be forgotten and can never be replaced. Van leaves to cherish her most loving memories with her devoted parents Robert and Blanche Morgan; four children, Lamarlow and Milton Vaughan, John and Lakesha Mills; two sisters, Cecelia Stephenson and Anastasia Morgan; three brothers, Matthew Vaughan, Timothy Vaughan (Irene), Conrado Morgan (Phyllis); five grandchildren, Quanika Smith, Deshawn Seaborne, T'Keya Charity, Ashley and Keshawn Holloman; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

A tribute in honor of my 1st cousin, Vanzola Vaughan. We always played together when we where young girls and went to school together. I remember the times we spent with Great Aunt Ida. Those were the good old days. May Vanzola rest in peace.- cousin Minister Louella Josephine Grimes-
