

Verlie L. Lundy

December 27, 1949 - May 13, 2018

There's an open gate at the end of the road
Through which each must go alone,
And there is a light we cannot see
Our Father claims HIS own.

VERLIE L. DANIEL, son of Mary A. Daniel and the late Joseph C. Daniel, was born in Emporia, VA on December 27, 1949 and departed this life on May 13, 2018 at Norfolk Sentara Hospital at the age of 68.

Verlie and his brother James (Skeeter) spent their childhood years in Emporia, VA; in the home of their Aunt Lucille and Uncle Frank, Webb alongside their cousins.

He attended E. W. Wyatt High School in Emporia, VA before moving to Portsmouth, VA to reside with his mother and later enrolled in Job Corps where he received his GED and learned the trade of auto mechanic. Upon his return home, Verlie's passion for repairing cars lead him to open his own auto repair shop on Princess Anne Road in Norfolk, VA known as Daniel's Auto Repair.

Verlie was preceded in death by his son Verlie Waters but leaves to cherish his memories, his mother Mary A. Daniel, Portsmouth, VA; two daughters Vernell W. Faison (Curtis) of Portsmouth, VA; and Felecia Johnson of Norfolk, VA; one son Jermaine Waters of Portsmouth, VA; eight grandchildren, and three great grandchildren. Two brothers James Lundy (Peggy) of Emporia, VA and brother Joseph T. Daniel, (Lisa) of Woodbridge, VA; two sisters Pamela

Vaughan of Richmond, VA, and Lesa Daniels of Chesapeake, VA; devoted friends Denise Johnson, Howard Green, Leo Harrison, Jr., Robert Moody, Jr. and Larry Moore along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends.
