

Vertia L. Powell

August 28, 1983 - September 23, 2022

Vertia “Vee” Powell departed this earthly life after a lengthy battle with Diabetes on September 23rd, 2022. Vee was born on August 28th, 1983, in Norfolk, VA to LaVerna Sessoms and James Freeman. After graduating from Great Bridge High School and then Tidewater Community College, Vee worked for several years in the Customer Service field where she built many lasting friendships.

Vee’s greatest achievements in life was her relationship with The Lord and birthing 3 beautiful children. She dearly loved Keandra 21 (her “college student”), DeSire 9 (her “tik-toker”), and Deshawn 8 (her “Handsome Man”). Vee also loved spending time with family, watching Lifetime movies, drawing, and praising The Lord.

Vee was preceded in death by her mother; LaVerna, Father; James, Maternal and Paternal grandparents, sister; Yolanda, as well as an aunt and Namesake; Vertia. Left to cherish her memories are: 3 loving children Keandra, DeSire, and Deshawn; 2 sisters Regina and Yanique (Isis); nieces Symone, Arlanda, Martieka, and Precious; nephew James, as well as many other family members, friends, and her “Spiritual Mother” Evangelist Faye Adams.

The family will receive loved ones at Yanique and Regina’s house for food and fellowship at 2pm the evening following the funeral.

The family would like to extend sincere thanks and appreciation for all the kind gestures extended to them in their time of bereavement, as well as for, all the love shown to Vee throughout her life.
