

Vessie Diggs Taylor

May 4, 1930 - December 11, 2020

Vessie Diggs Taylor, was born in the City of Portsmouth on May 4, 1930 to William and Olivia Diggs. She soared into the heavens on Friday, December 11, 2020 surrounded by her loved ones. Vessie leaves behind her 5 daughters, Rosalind Faulkner (Jan), Marion Burnett, Constance Lewis, Lisa Taylor, Leslye Taylor, 1 Son Bruce Taylor (Valarie), 15 grandchildren, 33 great grandchildren , 9 great great-grandchildren, 4 sisters, Olivia Robinson, Ann Stancil, Ellen Vaughan, Aristine Boone and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. She was predeceased by her son Darryl S. Taylor. Vessie graduated from I.C. Norcom High School in 1948. She attended the University of New Mexico. She retired after over 25 years from the United States Postal Service. She was a valued member of her community as she served in several organizations and received numerous certificates and awards. Vessie always dressed fashionably and enjoy going out to events and traveling. She had the most infectious laugh and her smile lit up a room. Vessie was a strong black woman who wore many hats during her lifetime. Most of all, her greatest accomplishment was raising her children with her unique love language as a provider and protector.
